

The Daily Union Vedette.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 4, 1865.

The Second Inauguration.

To-day is an eventful one in the history of our country—not the least among the eventful days crowded within the compass of the last four years. It carries into effect the verdict of the people in November, whereby the destiny of a great nation was decided and its policy dictated, beyond recall, for centuries to come. Then, for the first time, were the shackles stricken from her limbs, and her feet placed squarely in the path leading to the glorious summits of her destiny, whither her aspirations had long ascended, discovering the promises of her hope, only in the distant future. Then, too, did the immortal declaration of Jefferson first become a reality, and our boast of Liberty, something more than a dream of poets and enthusiasts.

Who does not remember, when four years ago Abraham Lincoln was forced to seek the National Capital by stealth, to avoid the assassin hands of the traitors, how for months, the Nation had lain helpless, like a giant under the influence of some horrible nightmare, with James Buchanan sitting like an incubus upon its breast and palsying its strength.

Through what fearful throes and mighty events have we passed since then. When the hostile cannon of open rebellion smote the old flag from the frowning walls of Sumter it roused the Nation, as with an electric shock, from the fatal trance in which it lay prostrate and, then, the land began to tremble with the tread of assembling legions, to renew the ancient conflict between the defenders of Freedom and her mortal foes.

For four awful years the carnival of death has continued, and war has driven his swift chariot through fields of slaughter, where carnage loaded her groaning wains with the dead and dying. But still over a thousand battle grounds, enriched with human blood, where the harvest of death was gathered in winnows of the slain, whether amid the tangled dangers of the Wilderness, or following the Father of Waters in his course to the sea, or waving in triumph above the clouds on Missionary Ridge, still the banner of Liberty has moved onward; and from the North and South the hosts, that have borne it to victory, now gather around the doomed Capital of rebellion, within whose beleaguered walls treason sits gloomy and dejected, but still defiant in its undying hate, with the vultures of starvation and despair devouring its very vitals. May its champions survive long enough to feel the hot curses of mankind fall upon them in blistering scorn and, then, die in the torturing consciousness, that those curses will pursue their memory, while history can preserve from oblivion the evil they have done.

But the fearful ordeal is now nearly over and the Nation stands before the world to-day triumphant and threatening, in its just anger, towards the hungry harpies of despotism, that sought to compass its downfall and tear the carcass of their victim when destroyed. Hopeless failure everywhere stares treason in the face, the treason they have encouraged and sustained, and already those vultures are beginning to coo like very doves for friendship. But we know their cruel nature and shall hide our time to make them feel, one day, the talons of an eagle trussing their puny strength and his beak plucking at their hearts.

The Nation is no longer uncertain of its power, but is not ungenerous in the hour of victory. To-day is the occasion for those, who have been lukewarm or adverse in the hour of trial, to set themselves right before their countrymen and avoid future disgrace by, even at this late hour, assuming a loyal status and forsaking the path of evil in which they may have traveled hitherto, and, on this second inauguration of the noble patriot, who has guarded our destinies, so far and so well, through the troubled waters of revolution, let us pledge anew our faith in the future that awaits our Nation.

THE PRICE OF GOLD.—The Alta gives the following interesting table of the fluctuations in gold from the time the banks suspended in December 1861. During 1862 the highest quoted premium on gold was 37 in October. In 1863 the highest premium was in February, the quotation reached 172, the par being represented by 100. In 1864 the heaviest advance began in June, the gold Act taking effect June 21st. July 11th, it was quoted at 285, its highest point:

Date	Lowest	High	Low	High
January.....	102	104	134	180
February.....	102	104	153	172
March.....	101	102	139	171
April.....	101	102	146	159
May.....	102	104	143	155
June.....	103	109	140	148
July.....	109	120	123	145
August.....	112	116	122	139
September.....	116	125	127	143
October.....	122	136	140	156
November.....	129	133	143	154
December.....	130	134	147	152

Dec 31st the rate was 227½, and it fell to 197½, the lowest price on the 21st. The advance in the price of gold has been in accordance with the quantity of paper money outstanding. The true mode of quotation is that used here, giving the price of paper in money. This fact has been admitted in all the Reports of the Treasury Department, and it is because this fact is recognized that the Secretary so frequently proclaims the intention to restrain paper issues. Unhappily, however, the National Banks are clothed with full power to swell the volume of the currency by $225,000,000, and they are doing so at the rate of $2,000,000 per week, under which process, there can be no other result than that pointed out by both Mr. Chase and Mr. Fessenden, viz: a further depreciation. Shortly before his resignation, Mr. Chase in his public appeal, stated that no financial combinations could succeed without military success. The War Department responded that with military success financial combinations were unnecessary. The hope is now entertained that the issue of the balance of the loan in compound legal tenders may suffice to close the war. The advent of Governor Morgan to the Treasury may produce a change of policy.

NEW GUNBOAT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The Government has recently purchased a new steam propeller cutter, on the stocks, building, which is to be immediately finished for a gunboat, heavily armed, and sent to the port of San Francisco.

NEW DEPARTMENT.—By a San Francisco dispatch, we learn that Arizona and Southern California are to be organized as a new division of the Department of the Pacific, with the headquarters at Los Angeles, and that Gen. Mason is to command.

PETROLEUM.—A New York paper, representing the Petroleum interests, publishes a list of several Companies that are entirely worthless, whose aggregate capital amounts to six million of dollars.

THE INDEX. (A moderate organ.) gives a rumor of an intention on the part of the British Government, to sever its connection with Canada before the termination of the American war.

TROTTER MATCH.—The great trotting match, in Paris, between the American horse Shepard, and the French horse Express, resulted in the victory of the American horse—winning the race by 100 yards.

REAL ESTATE.—A lot on Kearney street, San Francisco, which one year ago was purchased for $500, has been recently sold for $10,000.

POTATOES.—A singular objection was urged against the vegetable, potatoe, by the Puritans, on the ground that they were not mentioned in the Bible.

Grand National Celebration.

PROGRAMME OF EXERCISES.

The head of column of Procession will form at east end of Market street at 10 1-2 A. M., there to be joined by the U S military forces stationed at Camp Douglas. The members of the City and County Governments, societies, organized bodies under marshals, and citizens, will assemble on the several cross streets east of Main street, along the line of march facing the route of Procession. As the column moves westward they will fall into line as indicated by the following Programme or by the aids deputized by the Grand Marshal:

ROUTE OF PROCESSION.

At 11 o'clock A. M. precisely, the column will move west, along Market street to Third East Temple street, thence north to South Temple street, thence west to First South Temple street, thence south to Market street, thence east to West Temple street, thence south to 2d South Temple street, thence east to 1st East Temple street, (State road,) thence south to Emigration street, thence west to Main street, thence along Main street to the stand in front of the Market House, where the concourse will assemble. While assembling, a Federal salute will be fired by artillery, from head of Main street.

The exercises at the stand will be as follows:

- 1st. Music, by City Brass Band.
  - 2d. Prayer, by Rev Norman McLeod.
  - 3d. Music, by Military Brass Band.
  - 4th. Oration, by Hon. John Titus, Chief Justice of Utah.
  - 5th. Music, by Band.
  - 6th. Closing Address.
- After which, the procession will be dismissed, with a National salute from Artillery.

S. S. WALKER,
Grand Marshal.

Action of the City Council.

We are pleased to learn that the Salt Lake City Council has taken steps to co-operate in the Inauguration Celebration with a hearty good will. On the evening of the 2d inst., the Council met and passed the following:

CITY COUNCIL CHAMBER,
GREAT SALT LAKE CITY,
March 2d, 1865.

WHEREAS, Saturday, the 4th inst., being the day of Inauguration of the President of the United States, and

WHEREAS, also, by reason of the many recent victories of the Armies of our Country:

THEREFORE, be it resolved, by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, That we cheerfully join in the public celebration and rejoicings of that day throughout the United States, and that we cordially invite the citizens, and organizations, military and civil, of the Territory, County and City, to unite on that occasion.

Be it further resolved, That a Committee of Three be appointed to confer with the Grand Marshal of the day, and make the necessary arrangements to join in the general celebration.

A. O. SMITH,
Mayor.

Attest,

ROBERT CAMPBELL,
City Recorder.
John Sharp, Enoch Reese, and Theodore McKean, Esq's., constitute the above Committee.

SUICIDE.—A soldier attached to Company B, 3d Artillery, stationed on Angel Island, Cal., recently committed suicide by jumping into the bay at Stewart's Point.

A BIG BOUNTY.—The Board of Supervisors of New York City have passed a resolution to pay one thousand dollars to every volunteer accepted by the Government, as a portion of that city's quota demanded by the draft.

EDWARD EVERETT.—The public buildings at Washington were draped in mourning, with flags at half mast, in respect to the memory of Edward Everett. The War Department was closed.

WHEN Pride and Poverty marry, their children are want and crime.

SILVER.—Twelve silver bricks, weighing 1,100, were lately received at Portland, from the Owyhee mines.

[COMMUNICATED.]

ERINA, NEV.,

February 24th, 1865.

Editor Vedette:—In your issue of Feb. 20th, appears a communication from this place headed "Overland Thieves," and signed "Franklin," which, if not contradicted, might be received as containing the general sentiments of our citizens in regard to an enterprise which, I am sure, is conducted faithfully and well.

"Franklin" denounces the "attachés" of the Overland Mail from Salt Lake to this point as "vagabonds, copperheads and secessionists," and seems awfully "sore headed" about his mail matter and certain packages of clothing which he charges have been appropriated by others, and now grace the forms of these "flunkies of Jeff Davis," who are "too cowardly to make a target of themselves before the national braves," and who have sought protection from this naughtiness and disloyal Overland Co.

Until the light of his pen informed us, we were not aware that we were at the mercy of such traitors in fact for any purpose but to steal "packages of clothing" and purloin newspapers.

What a pity "Uncle Sammel" was not apprised of their thieving propensities before granting the mail contract, and thus saved our distinguished friend the onerous burden, which flows from him like dirty water from a sponge without squeezing. But then, you know "great friends will differ;" the "powers that be" might have coolly informed brother "Franklin" he was too "ardent" in his remarks, and permitted his imagination to become so forked by lightning as to be unable to discern whether the "jug" contained one handle or more, thus convincing our poor friend that he had allowed his feelings of patriotism to carry him beyond the pale of reason and common sense, and made charges he could no more substantiate, than carry the mail, bare back himself.

He should have written to Gen. Connor and urged him to send the "arms and ammunition" petitioned for by the citizens of Erina, as we have but three old muskets and one cartridge in camp—rather a small ordnance department of defense against the wily savage, and still more dangerous element of the "white color" which infest the Overland Route. No doubt the General would send them, with the same dispatch as his "packages of clothing" has been "donated," or else respond he hadn't any to send, which probably is the case with the Overland and him.

But where did he get all this secret and mysterious information? Ah, I know; a few months ago agents Len Wines and Bob McComb met early one morning in Salt Lake, shook hands and both blew their noses at the same time, in a loud and boisterous manner, and gave a peculiar jerk, then strode rapidly down street towards the "Gem." Probably "Franklin" both saw the motion and heard the report of their officious, and chuck full of patriotism, mistook the sign for the mystic sign of the "Knights of the Golden Circle," but I followed them, and found they had only been cleaning themselves preparatory to imbibing a "cocktail" before breakfast a most innocent amusement and highly refreshed by all stage men. It was certainly a great relief to me, for "Len" was delegate to the last Union Convention of Lander County, and it would have been a pity for him to have entered into conspiracy for the employment of "thieves, vagabonds, copperheads and secessionists."

Brother "Franklin" must hold up his steam, and back his engine on another track, for he is sadly out of place, in making such sweeping assertions. He could not get the endorsement of a single citizen of "Erina" in his attack against what we one and all justly consider the great benefit and convenience of the Overland Mail Company. We have no post office here, since the evacuation of Stopee City, consequently no mail; but the company kindly bring our letters and papers, free of charge, when they might leave them at the nearest post office. Valuable packages are being constantly sent to and from, without complaint, except in this case of "Franklin," who seems to have set up on his eggs of wrath until he brought forth a goose without any feathers at all. Many traveling hummers complain because each station is not a free hotel, with lively stable attached; but for our sakes, "Franklin" do not disgrace "fair Erina" with any more growlings against the parties conducting one of the best stage lines in this or any other country. "Viva La" Overland! Long may her agents, drivers and keepers weather the storm and tempest of desert and mountain, and receive, as they ever will, the justly deserved praise of sensible and reasonable travelers.

BITTER ROOT.

STATE PRISON.—A man named Patrick Hughes, of Stockton, Cal., has been recently sent to the penitentiary for five years, for firing his own house to obtain the insurance.

GREENBACKS.—The citizens of Oregon have appealed to the Courts to compel the collectors to receive greenbacks for taxes.

EDUCATION.—Dr. Franklin, in speaking of education, says if a man empties his purse into his head none can take it from him.

NUCKET.—A gold nugget, of forty ounces in weight, was taken out of a claim on Grimes' creek, Idaho, recently.

PETROLEUM.—A San Francisco gentleman has made the discovery that coal oil is a sovereign remedy for corns.

FAIR.—A Fair for the children of rebel soldiers has been held in New Orleans.

SANITARY FUND.—The sum of $1,200 was realized from a festival in aid of the Sanitary Fund, held in San Jose, Cal., recently.

CHICAGO.—There are three hundred and fifty-two vessels laid up at Chicago wharves, ice bound.

SNOW.—The snow on Diamond Mountain has been from twelve to fifteen feet deep this winter.

INDOLENCE prepares the road to misery.

DEATH is the only master who takes his servants without a character.

GEN. SHERIDAN has started on a tour of inspection of his command.

SECRECY IN BUSINESS.—One cause of Rothschild's great advantage in his business transactions was the secrecy with which he shrouded them, and the tortuous policy with which he misled those the most who watched him the keenest. If he possessed news calculated to make the funds rise, he would commission the broker who acted on his behalf to sell half a million. The shoal of men who usually follow the movements of others sold with him. The news soon passed through the monetary circle that Rothschild was "bearing" the market, and the funds fell. Men looked dubiously at one another; a general panic spread; bad news was looked for—and these united agencies sunk the price two or three per cent. This was the result expected; and other brokers, not usually employed by him, bought all that they could at the reduced rates. By the time this was accomplished, the good news had arrived; the pressure ceased; the funds rose instantly, and Rothschild reaped his reward. There were, however, periods when his gigantic capital seemed likely to be scattered to the four quarters of the globe. He lost half a million in one English operation; when the French entered Spain, in 1823, he was also in the greatest jeopardy; but, perhaps the most perilous position in which he was placed was with the famous Polignac loan, altho' his vast intelligence saved him and placed the burden on the shoulders of others. With this, nevertheless, he suffered greatly, as the price fell thirty per cent.

MORE OIL SPRINGS.—The oil disease is raging as an epidemic. The latest discovery, says the Monterey, (Cal.) Gazette, is of new springs within fifty miles of San Juan South, Monterey county. Wood and water are abundant.

Local Matters.

WELCOME NEWS.—The gentlemanly, obliging and much respected Paymaster, Maj. Bull, and his Assistant, "Charley," we are most happy to state, are now en-route for Camp Douglas, with a carpet-sack replete with the G. B's. Ain't this glorious? The dull times will soon be at an end, and we will, in a very few days, be able to see smiles on the countenances of those with whom we are familiar, and who for the past months of dreary winter, have actually not given us one single "grin." Hurrah for the Major, says one and all, and for us, we would like to see his smiling countenance, and laugh and grow fat upon one of his "super" puns.

THANKS.—The promoters of the cause of christianity in Utah, take this method of returning sincere thanks for the present and much needed aid, afforded them by friends of the cause in California. Bro. John F. Pinkham, and Sisters C. E. Pinkham, and Mary C. Rogers, of Placerville; also, to our young friend, Augustin F. Upton, San Francisco. We thank you friends, for your timely aid, and especially our young friend Upton. We hope to prove by our success, that the aid so kindly and promptly extended to us, is not thrown away.

BISHOP WOOLLY, AGENT.—We understand this delectable individual, who is County Recorder of Salt Lake County, refuses to record Maps of lands surveyed and located according to a law of last Congress, and says, the Government has no right to the lands of Utah—that the Mormons were here and owned this country before the Government of the U. S. acquired it. Beautiful logic. Are there any others in Utah who believe as this dear old Saint and house-breaker does? We pause for an answer.

THE GOOD TEMPTATIONS of this post beg most respectfully to thank the Committee for the kind invitation to participate in the "Grand Celebration" to-day, and decline only on the ground that they will "all be there any way," with their respective companies, as soldiers, but not in a body, as their number is so large that it would make their companies rather slim should they turn out as a Lo-ge.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—The Fenians of Camp Douglas will give a "Grand Ball" on Friday evening, March 17th. They are making extensive preparations for the occasion, and everything looks propitious for a splendid party.

QUARTERMASTERS DEPARTMENT.—A large "invoice" of (by some people) termed "Lincoln Skins," is on the way for the Quartermaster for the District of Utah.

THE "Union Varieties" will open again on Monday evening, at the Camp Douglas Theater. Billy, Van, and Briggs are around again.

A REBEL OFFICER.—The San Francisco Flag says that a son of Dr. R. H. McAniels, of Marysville, and an officer in the rebel army, has been in that city several days, recognized in the streets by many persons, and hob-nobbing in whisky shops with certain of the military popinjays who harbor about the Occidental. It is said that young McDaniel has been several years in the Confederate service, and now ranks as Major. Having been wounded, he is now on a visit to his parents.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 4, 1865.

The Second Inauguration.

To-day is an eventful one in the history of our country—not the least among the eventful days crowded within the compass of the last four years. It carries into effect the verdict of the people in November, whereby the destiny of a great nation was decided and its policy dictated, beyond recall, for centuries to come. Then, for the first time, were the shackles stricken from her limbs, and her feet placed squarely in the path leading to the glorious summits of her destiny, whither her aspirations had long ascended, discovering the promises of her hope, only in the distant future. Then, too, did the immortal declaration of Jefferson first become a reality, and our boast of Liberty, something more than a dream of poets and enthusiasts.

Who does not remember, when four years ago Abraham Lincoln was forced to seek the National Capital by stealth, to avoid the assassin hands of the traitors, how for months, the Nation had lain helpless, like a giant under the influence of some horrible nightmare, with James Buchanan sitting like an incubus upon its breast and palsying its strength.

Through what fearful throes and mighty events have we passed since then. When the hostile cannon of open rebellion smote the old flag from the frowning walls of Sumter it roused the Nation, as with an electric shock, from the fatal trance in which it lay prostrate, and, then, the land began to tremble with the tread of assembling legions, to renew the ancient conflict between the defenders of Freedom and her mortal foes.

For four awful years the carnival of death has continued, and war has driven his swift chariot through fields of slaughter, where carnage loaded her groaning wains with the dead and dying. But still over a thousand battle grounds, enriched with human blood, where the harvest of death was gathered in winrows of the slain, whether amid the tangled dangers of the Wilderness, or following the Father of Waters in his course to the sea, or waving in triumph above the clouds on Missionary Ridge, still the banner of Liberty has moved onward; and from the North and South the hosts, that have borne it to victory, now gather around the doomed Capital of rebellion, within whose beleaguered walls treason sits gloomy and dejected, but still defiant in its undying hate, with the vultures of starvation and despair devouring its very vitals. May its champions survive long enough to feel the hot curses of mankind fall upon them in blistering scorn and, then, die in the torturing consciousness, that those curses will pursue their memory, while history can preserve from oblivion the evil they have done.

But, the fearful ordeal is now nearly over and the Nation stands before the world to-day triumphant and threatening, in its just anger, towards the hungry harpies of despotism, that sought to compass its downfall and tear the carcass of their victim when destroyed. Hopeless failure everywhere stares treason in the face, the treason they have encouraged and sustained, and already those vultures are beginning to coo like very doves for friendship. But we know their cruel nature and shall hide our time to make them feel, one day, the talons of an eagle trussing their puny strength and his beak plucking at their hearts.

The Nation is no longer uncertain of its power, but is not ungenerous in the hour of victory. To-day is the occasion for those, who have been lukewarm or adverse in the hour of trial, to set themselves right before their countrymen and avoid future disgrace by, even at this late hour, assuming a loyal status and forsaking the path of evil in which they may have traveled hitherto, and, on this second inauguration of the noble patriot, who has guarded our destinies, so far and so well, through the troubled waters of revolution, let us pledge anew our faith in the future that awaits our Nation.

THE PRICE OF GOLD.—The Alta gives the following interesting table of the fluctuations in gold from the time the banks suspended in December 1861. During 1862 the highest quoted premium on gold was 37 in October. In 1863 the highest premium was in February, the quotation reached 172, the par being represented by 100. In 1864 the heaviest advance began in June, the gold Act taking effect June 21st. July 11th, it was quoted at 285, its highest point:

Date	Lowest	High	Low	High
January.....	102	104	153	160
February.....	101	102	139	171
March.....	101	102	146	159
April.....	102	104	143	155
May.....	103	109	140	148
June.....	109	120	123	145
July.....	112	116	122	129
August.....	116	125	127	143
September.....	122	136	140	156
October.....	123	133	143	154
November.....	130	134	147	152
December.....	130	134	147	152

Dec 31st the rate was 227½, and it fell to 197½, the lowest price on the 21st. The advance in the price of gold has been in accordance with the quantity of paper money outstanding. The true mode of quotation is that used here, giving the price of paper in money. This fact has been admitted in all the Reports of the Treasury Department, and it is because this fact is recognized that the Secretary so frequently proclaims the intention to restrain paper issues. Unhappily, however, the National Banks are clothed with full power to swell the volume of the currency by $225,000,000, and they are doing so at the rate of $2,000,000 per week, under which process, there can be no other result than that pointed out by both Mr. Chase and Mr. Fessenden, viz: a further depreciation. Shortly before his resignation, Mr. Chase in his public appeal, stated that no financial combinations could succeed without military success. The War Department responded that with military success financial combinations were unnecessary. The hope is now entertained that the issue of the balance of the loan in compound legal tenders may suffice to close the war. The advent of Governor Morgan to the Treasury may produce a change of policy.

NEW GUNBOAT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The Government has recently purchased a new steam propeller cutter, on the stocks, building, which is to be immediately finished for a gunboat, heavily armed, and sent to the port of San Francisco.

NEW DEPARTMENT.—By a San Francisco dispatch, we learn that Arizona and Southern California are to be organized as a new division of the Department of the Pacific, with the headquarters at Los Angeles, and that Gen. Mason is to command.

PETROLEUM.—A New York paper, representing the Petroleum interests, publishes a list of several Companies that are entirely worthless, whose aggregate capital amounts to six million of dollars.

THE INDEX. (A moderate organ.) gives a rumor of an intention on the part of the British Government, to sever its connection with Canada before the termination of the American war.

TROTTER MATCH.—The great trotting match, in Paris, between the American horse Shepard, and the French horse Express, resulted in the victory of the American horse—winning the race by 100 yards.

REAL ESTATE.—A lot on Kearney street, San Francisco, which one year ago was purchased for $500, has been recently sold for $10,000.

POTATOES.—A singular objection was urged against the vegetable, potatoe, by the Puritans, on the ground that they were not mentioned in the Bible.

Grand National Celebration.

PROGRAMME OF EXERCISES.

The head of column of Procession will form at east end of Market street at 10 1-2 A. M., there to be joined by the U S military forces stationed at Camp Douglas. The members of the City and County Governments, societies, organized bodies under marshals, and citizens, will assemble on the several cross streets east of Main street, along the line of march facing the route of Procession. As the column moves westward they will fall into line as indicated by the following Programme or by the aids deputized by the Grand Marshal:

ROUTE OF PROCESSION.

At 11 o'clock A. M. precisely, the column will move west, along Market street to Third East Temple street, thence north to South Temple street, thence west to First South Temple street, thence south to Market street, thence east to West Temple street, thence south to 2d South Temple street, thence east to 1st East Temple street, (State road,) thence south to Emigration street, thence west to Main street, thence along Main street to the stand in front of the Market House, where the concourse will assemble. While assembling, a Federal salute will be fired by artillery, from head of Main street.

The exercises at the stand will be as follows:

- 1st. Music, by City Brass Band.
  - 2d. Prayer, by Rev Norman McLeod.
  - 3d. Music, by Military Brass Band.
  - 4th. Oration, by Hon. John Pitus, Chief Justice of Utah.
  - 5th. Music, by Band.
  - 6th. Closing Address.
- After which, the procession will be dismissed, with a National salute from Artillery.

S. S. WALKER,
Grand Marshal.

Action of the City Council.

We are pleased to learn that the Salt Lake City Council has taken steps to co-operate in the Inauguration Celebration with a hearty good will. On the evening of the 2d inst., the Council met and passed the following:

CITY COUNCIL CHAMBER, GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, March 2d, 1865.

WHEREAS, Saturday, the 4th inst., being the day of Inauguration of the President of the United States, and

WHEREAS, also, by reason of the many recent victories of the Armies of our Country:

THEREFORE, be it resolved, by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, That we cheerfully join in the public celebration and rejoicings of that day through out the United States, and that we cordially invite the citizens, and organizations, military and civil, of the Territory, County and City, to unite on that occasion.

Be it further resolved, That a Committee of Three be appointed to confer with the Grand Marshal of the day, and make the necessary arrangements to join in the general celebration.

A. O. SMOOT,
Mayor.

Attest.

ROBERT CAMPBELL,
City Recorder.
John Sharp, Enoch Reese, and Theodore McKean, Esq's., constitute the above Committee.

SUICIDE.—A soldier attached to Company B, 3d Artillery, stationed on Angel Island, Cal., recently committed suicide by jumping into the bay at Stewart's Point.

A BIG BOUNTY.—The Board of Supervisors of New York City have passed a resolution to pay one thousand dollars to every volunteer accepted by the Government, as a portion of that city's quota demanded by the draft.

EDWARD EVERETT.—The public buildings at Washington were draped in mourning, with flags at half mast, in respect to the memory of Edward Everett. The War Department was closed.

WHEN Pride and Poverty marry, their children are want and crime.

SILVER.—Twelve silver bricks, weighing 1,100, were lately received at Portland, from the Owyhee mines.

[COMMUNICATED.]

ERINA, Nev.,

February 24th, 1865

Editor Vedette:—In your issue of Feb. 20th, appears a communication from this place headed "Overland Thieves," and signed "Franklin," which, if not contradicted, might be received as containing the general sentiments of our citizens in regard to an enterprise which, I am sure, is conducted faithfully and well. "Franklin" denounces the "attachés" of the Overland Mail from Salt Lake to this point as "vagabonds, copperheads and secessionists," and seems awfully "sore headed" about his mail matter and charges have been appropriated by others, and now grace the forms of these "flunkies of Jeff Davis," who are "too cowardly to make a target of themselves before the national braves," and who have sought protection from this naughtiness and disloyal Overland Co.

Until the light of his pen informed us, we were not aware that we were at the mercy of such traitors unfit for any purpose but to steal "packages of clothing" and purloin newspapers.

What a pity "Uncle Samuel" was not apprised of their thieving propensities before granting the mail contract, and thus saved our distinguished friend the on burst of venom, which flows from him like dirty water from a sponge without squeezing. But then, you know "great friends will differ;" the "powers that be" might have coolly informed brother "Franklin" he was too "ardent" in his remarks, and permitted his imagination to become so forked by lightning as to be unable to discern whether the "jug" contained one handle or more, thus convincing our poor friend that he had allowed his feelings of patriotism to carry him beyond the pale of reason and common sense, and made charges, he could no more substantiate, than carry the mail bare back himself.

He should have written to Gen. Connor and urged him to send the "arms and ammunition" petitioned for by the citizens of Erina, as we have but three old muskets and one cartridge in camp—rather a small ordnance department of defense against the wily savage and still more dangerous element of the "white color" which infest the Overland Route. No doubt the General would send them, with the same dispatch as his "packages of clothing" has been "done for," or else respond he hadn't any to send, which probably is the case with the Overland and him.

But where did he get all this secret and mysterious information from? Ah, I know; a few months ago agents Len Wines and Bob McComb met early one morning in Salt Lake, shook hands and both blew their noses at the same time, in a loud and boisterous manner, and gave a peculiar jerk, then strode rapidly down street towards the "Gem." Probably "Franklin" both saw the motion and heard the report of their ostentatious, and chuck full of patriotism, mistook the sign for the mystic sign of the "Knights of the Golden Circle," but I followed them, and found they had only been cleaning themselves preparatory to imbibing a "cocktail" before breakfast a most innocent amusement and highly relished by all stage men. It was certainly a great relief to me, for "Len" was delegate to the last Union Convention of Lander County, and it would have been a pity for him to have entered into conspiracy for the employment of "thieves, vagabonds, copperheads and secessionists."

Brother "Franklin" must hold up his steam, and back his engine on another track, for he is sadly out of place, in making such sweeping assertions. He could not get the endorsement of a single citizen of "Erina" in his attack against what we one and all justly consider the great benefit and convenience of the Overland Mail Company. We have no post office here, since the evacuation of Steptoe City, consequently no mail; but the company kindly bring our letters and papers, free of charge, when they might leave them at the nearest post office. Valuable packages are being constantly sent to and from, without complaint, except in this case of "Franklin," who seems to have set upon his eggs of wrath until he brought forth a goose without any feathers at all. Many traveling hummers complain because each station is not a free hotel, with livery stable attached; but for our sakes, "Franklin" do not disgrace "fair Erina" with any more growlings against the parties conducting one of the best stage lines in this or any other country. "Viva La" Overland! Long may her agents, drivers and keepers weather the storm and tempest of desert and mountain, and receive, as they ever will, the justly deserved praise of sensible and reasonable travelers.

BITTER ROOT.

STATE PRISON.—A man named Patrick Hughes, of Stockton, Cal., has been recently sent to the penitentiary for five years, for firing his own house to obtain the insurance.

GREENBACKS.—The citizens of Oregon have appealed to the Courts to compel the collectors to receive greenbacks for taxes.

EDUCATION.—Dr. Franklin, in speaking of education, says if a man empties his purse into his head none can take it from him.

NUCKET.—A gold nugget, of forty ounces in weight, was taken out of a claim on Grimes' creek, Idaho, recently.

PETROLEUM.—A San Francisco gentleman has made the discovery that coal oil is a sovereign remedy for corns.

FAIR.—A Fair for the children of rebel soldiers has been held in New Orleans.

SANITARY FUND.—The sum of $1,200 was realized from a festival in aid of the Sanitary Fund, held in San Jose, Cal., recently.

CHICAGO.—There are three hundred and fifty-two vessels laid up at Chicago wharves, ice bound.

SNOW.—The snow on Diamond Mountain has been from twelve to fifteen feet deep this winter.

INDOLENCE prepares the road to misery.

DEATH is the only master who takes his servants without a character.

GEN. SHERIDAN has started on a tour of inspection of his command.

SECRECY IN BUSINESS.—One cause of Rothschild's great advantage in his business transactions was the secrecy with which he shrouded them, and the tortuous policy with which he misled those the most who watched him the keenest. If he possessed news calculated to make the funds rise, he would commission the broker who acted on his behalf to sell half a million. The shoal of men who usually follow the movements of others sold with him. The news soon passed through the monetary circle that Rothschild was "beating" the market, and the funds fell. Men looked doubtfully at one another; a general panic spread; bad news was looked for—and these muted agencies sunk the price two or three per cent. This was the result expected; and other brokers, not usually employed by him, bought all that they could at the reduced rates. By the time this was accomplished, the good news had arrived; the pressure ceased; the funds rose instantly, and Rothschild reaped his reward.—There were, however, periods when his gigantic capital seemed likely to be scattered to the four quarters of the globe. He lost half a million in one English operation; when the French entered Spain, in 1823, he was also in the greatest jeopardy; but, perhaps the most perilous position in which he was placed was with the famous Polignac loan, altho' his vast intelligence saved him and placed the burden on the shoulders of others. With this, nevertheless, he suffered greatly, as the price fell thirty per cent.

MORE OIL SPRINGS.—The oil disease is raging as an epidemic. The latest discovery, says the Monterey, (Cal.) Gazette, is of new springs within fifty miles of San Juan South, Monterey county. Wood and water are abundant.

Local Matters.

WELCOME NEWS.—The gentlemanly, obliging and much respected Paymaster, Maj. Bull, and his Assistant, "Charley," we are most happy to state, are now en-route for Camp Douglas, with a carpet-bag replete with the G. B's. Ain't this glorious? The dull times will soon be at an end, and we will, in a very few days, be able to see smiles on the countenances of those with whom we are familiar, and who for the past months of dreary winter, have actually not given us one single "grin." Hurrah for the Major, says one and all, and for us, we would like to see his smiling countenance, and laugh and grow fat upon one of his "super" puns.

THANKS.—The promoters of the cause of christianity in Utah, take this method of returning sincere thanks for the present and much needed aid, afforded them by friends of the cause in California. Bro. John F. Pinkham, and Sisters C. E. Pinkham, and Mary C. Rogers, of Placerville; also, to our young friend, Augustin F. Upton, San Francisco. We thank you friends, for your timely aid, and especially our young friend Upton. We hope to prove by our success, that the aid so kindly and promptly extended to us, is not thrown away.

BISHOP WOOLLY, AGAIN.—We understand this delectable individual, who is County Recorder of Salt Lake County, refuses to record Maps of lands surveyed and located according to a law of last Congress, and says, the Government has no right to the lands of Utah—that the Mormons were here and owned this country before the Government of the U. S. acquired it. Beautiful logic. Are there any others in Utah who believe as this dear old Saint and house-breaker does? We pause for an answer.

THE GOOD TEMPLARS of this post beg most respectfully to thank the Committee for the kind invitation to participate in the "Grand Celebration" to-day, and decline only on the ground that they will "all be there any way," with their respective companies, as soldiers, but not in a body, as their number is so large that it would make their companies rather slim should they turn out as a Lodge.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—The Fenians of Camp Douglas will give a "Grand Ball" on Friday evening, March 17th. They are making extensive preparations for the occasion, and everything looks propitious for a splendid party.

QUARTERMASTERS DEPARTMENT.—A large "invoice" of (by some people) termed "Lincoln Skins," is on the way for the Quartermaster for the District of Utah.

THE "Union Varieties" will open again on Monday evening, at the Camp Douglas Theater. Billy, Van, and Briggs are around again.

A REBEL OFFICER.—The San Francisco Flag says that a son of Dr. R. H. Mc Daniels, of Marysville, and an officer in the rebel army, has been in that city several days, recognized in the streets by many persons, and hob-nobbing in whisky shops with certain of the military popinjays who harbor about the Occidental. It is said that young Mc Daniels has been several years in the Confederate service, and now ranks as Major. Having been wounded, he is now on a visit to his parents.

NOTICE.

PURSUANT to adjournment a meeting of the miners of RUSH VALLEY DISTRICT will be held at Messrs. Norton & Jayne's Hall, at Stockton, Tooele Co., on SATURDAY, March 4th, at 10 o'clock A. M.

JOS. H. NEVITT, Chairman.

[Written for the American Flag.]
THE OLD FLAG.

Raise high our standard to the breeze!
It was baptized by our fathers' blood;
There let it proudly float at ease,
It ne'er shall sink in fire or flood.
The hand of Freedom still is there
And shall maintain it through the wars,
For never floats a flag so fair
Upon the calm and stilly air,
As the radiant stripes and gorgeous stars!

Unblemished in its field of blue
Its crimson lines are gay and bright;
Its stars retain their lustre too,
Unsoiled in their spotless white;
Traitors cannot live beneath its folds,
But die bedewed with blood and scars;
For never floats a flag so fair
Upon the calm and stilly air,
As the radiant stripes, the gorgeous stars!

Let patriots now their oaths renew;
To crush base treason in its lair;
Break the rude chain on Slavery's hand
And place the stamp of freedom there.
Heal up the wound rebellion made;
Let peace preside where rage the wars,
For ne'er shall float a flag so fair
Upon the light and balmy air,
As the radiant stripes, the gorgeous stars!

THE CAPTAINS OF LABOR—The other day, when speaking of the opportunities which had fallen to his lot of forming a just estimate of the working classes, Sir Morton Peto, stated that for years past his firm had employed not less than 30,000 men in their different works. These consisted, of course, of persons of various classes, who, as this great contractor remarked, were employed in different parts of the world, and comprised the people of many lands. Fifty or sixty years ago the guidance of so many hands by one head, for any other than warlike purposes would not have been thought of. It seems even in these days a marvellous fact that Sir Morton Peto's army, which is engaged in advancing the civilization of the world, should be as numerous as those commanded by the Duke of Wellington and other noted generals. Besides the advantage of the works which are completed by this enormous human power which is wielded by Sir Morton Peto, there is also to be taken into consideration the additional aid of steam, hydraulic power and other applications by which, in part, docks, harbors, railways, and other constructions are made. And the amount of money yearly distributed by this firm for labor and for various materials must amount to a vast sum. We have no certain figures to go upon; but if we estimate the wages of all classes of the employed at £1 a week on an average for each man, the item would amount to £1,560,000 in a year. There are many other monster establishments; and it is one of the remarkable signs of the present age that these are constantly on the increase. The results, are not all good—London Builder.

APPROPOS of marriages in high life, the fashionable world of Berlin has been not a little scandalized by the union of Count Westphalia, a member of one of the first families in Prussia, with a beautiful danseuse, Mlle Catherine Freidburg, from the imperial theater at St. Petersburg. The fair balletina was starring in the city last winter at the Royal Opera House, where her magnificent diamonds excited the envy of the gentler sex almost as much as the liberal display of her charms enraptured the grosser half of creation. The young couple have taken a splendid mansion near the hotel of the American Legation, and have announced a series of fetes, which will no doubt be numerously attended by the beau-monde or the demi-monde of Berlin.
